

Feature

- * Support logging in with a doctor's exclusive account and password, and can switch the client skin theme.
- * Support viewing of doctor's photo, name, job number, and consultation department.
- * Support viewing waiting patient information in the waiting list, such as waiting type (return visit, first visit), name, patient identity (military, children, etc.), support viewing the current total number of patients in line, the total number of diagnosis results, the total number of passed numbers, and the remaining total number.
- * It supports operations such as designated calling, calling the next number, passing the number, re-calling, and diagnosis conclusion for patients, and supports the referral of outpatient patients to other departments.
- * Support the information viewing function of patients who have been diagnosed, and support the recall of patients who have been diagnosed and wait for another visit.
- * Support the information query function for patients who have passed the number, and support the re-calling of patients who have passed the number.
- * Support quick search by entering patient name and queuing number in the search box.
- * Support the temporary suspension of doctors, and the patients will automatically return to the triage table, and the nurses will support the re-triage of patients.
- * It supports two-way high-definition intercom with the extended intercom microphone and the nurse station, and has a broadcast function, which can be used to manually broadcast to the waiting screen in the clinic.